We are pleased to invite you to our Herts and Borders festival of dance afternoons with dancing to live music, informal conversation and picnics (subject to Government guidance). There is a pleasant churchyard for your outdoor picnic and to talk with your dancing friends. You can dance as much or as little as you want.

Dancing will be indoors and the hall has good natural ventilation and a large car park.

For the initial dances please bring your own picnic plus garden chairs and rugs for sitting outside. This will be kept under review for the later dances.
